

Things i like may 2025!!!!
by ellie sullivan

hello there are lots of things in the world and i like most of them here is a review of some of the things i liked a lot at some point in May 2025

FILMS

Love Exposure (2008)

this is a film i watched and its really good!! it is however 4 hours long so id recommend watching it in 2 or more installments. This film does so many things its kinda crazy, i wont really get into spoilers but unfortunately its hard to talk about without them, because the main enjoyment one can get out of it is watching the plot unfold. go watch it. 5.5/5

Hackers (1995)

this film does so many things wrong like firstly it fucking HATES women but also like technically its not great, the acting isnt ideal, the script is absolutely laughable, the plot is inane. this film doesn't really have thematic cohesion and it feels like someone trying to piece together what the internet is like from the account of a time traveller from 2010. i love it so much its so good perfect film. 5.5(? tbh it kinda defies rating)/5

But I'm A Cheerleader (1999)

literally no mistakes are made here. this film is not a must watch or anything i just really like it 5.5/5

all the films i watched this month and logged on letterboxd dot com. (@lillien49 !!)
good crop!

ALBUMS!! (alba?)

The New Abnormal (2020)
The Strokes

this album took a while to grow on me, i think i listened to it first like 6 months ago and liked it well enough, but a few of the singles were stuck in my head in early may so i relistened and it quickly became the album of the month. straight banger. easily one of the best rock albums of the decade although it does have some weaker tracks. 9/10
song i particularly liked this month: Eternal Summer

Revengeseekerz (2025)
Jane Remover

NEW JANE REMOVER!!!!!! this album is so epic. danny brown feature is really funny to me, after this, the femtanyl song and the new 8485 song im convinced my man is doing sidequests. this album is absolutely excellent, and a notable progression for JR from their previous record. it has quite a lot of trap or contemporary experimental hip-hop elements which is really interesting to see a white girl * explore. she defo does it better than like iggy azalea or some shit. Posthyperpop at its absolute finest and definitely a contender for my eventual album of the year rankings. 10/10 song i particularly liked this month: Dancing with your eyes closed, Psychoboost ft danny brown

Art Angels (2015)
Grimes

grimes grimes grimes what are we to do with you. ms grimes has been a controversial figure ever since she stopped making good music but i still think she's cool. there is good in her ahh art angels is pretty widely agreed to be one of her two good albums and i concur i love this shit. However im bringing it up because i have the hypothesis that this album is like blood type o negative or some shit. if you do not like this album, you do not exist. everyone likes something about this album im convinced.

8/10

song i particularly liked this month: Kill V Maim, Flesh Without Blood

oh also i am now certifiably Death Grips pilled unfortunatley. im sorry
i was gonna give a list of all the other albums ive listened to this month but i cant remember :((

VIDEO GAMES

i havent really been playing very many this month just wanted to say Stardew Valley is still peak OH YEAH for the last like 2 weeks ive been playing Pokemon Blaze Black 2 Redux, im at the elite four rn. My teams on the next page below if youre interested (the hack makes superior grass dragon and flygon bug dragon, as well as changing some BSTs btw. EVs are off). ill probably give BB2R a short lil review when ive finished it.
